

" I love you" that is a big word,
I told you this first time while we admired the billboard.
Then i saw your smile,
you are not a vile, what would the word be without you my plum.
My love?My darling? My sweetie or honey, everyones tells me that love is a baloney.
They don't know that i would give all my money-
To be with you together... but it doesn't matter I want to tell you that, i love you with all my heart.
I want you today and for rest of my life.. :)

would you mind to fill me from the inside at the time like this when I just want to fall

maybe not apart but fall in love with the green leaves white blossoms or bright sun filling empty space in my room so would you mind to fill me up just like that

I think it's time for me to finally feel something

„Love“

A look

Quick glimpse

Given only once

Remembered

For the rest of times

A scent

Filling entire body

Making you wonder

How is that possible

To fall so hard without really falling

A taste

So many flavors

Hidden in one feeling

In one person

Making the world freeze

A sound

Voice echoing

Coming back on and on again

Causing your heart to steady

Soothing as nothing else

There's no remedy

No coming back

No place for lie

No place for lack

It's everything

Still I wonder why

Where does it come from

The feeling I crave

The feeling I beg for

The feeling I've made

Why does one person

Quick glance

Silent sound

Little bit of taste

The one in a million scent

Why do all my senses

Act so unexpectedly

Why do I feel like

Your love

Is my only remedy

Flavorless Valentine's Day

Life gave me lemons and I didn't make lemonade in time.
I'm becoming thirstier than ever before cause your lustful flesh is not here anymore.
If only I could fix the sourness between us.
My lips will be filled with a honey kiss from your cherry ones.

I miss your ginger hair flowing like warm caramel.
Lovely almond hazel eyes - watching my constant lies.
You've got a pear-shaped body type, the scent of fresh mint, rum, and lime.
I've got nothing, and it's true, to be worth being with you.

I'm consumed by jealousy - you plus he - equals passion chemistry.
My green behavior made me pay a bitter ending of this love game.
You will be the one for me forever, even if for you it doesn't matter.
And I know that we won't spend that day as a couple, but I can't help that you're my eye's apple.

Thousand words of gossips and lies Invented problems
To lead her life
Make she felt empty
That was his goal
But she had that power inside her soul
No one can break me Especially not boy Telling that to self
All the night long

OUR BIG LOVE

The universe is big, but bigger is our love;
Outer space is dark and we are like a shining star.
There are eight planets and we live on one;
There are a lot of people but we only love each other.
You are like my sun;
I am like a rose,
Because you give me power to grow.
You make my heart out of pieces;
And I send you a lot of kisses.
My heart beats really strong to you;
I hope that I will never lose you.
My life with you is better;
Be my Valentine forever.

Almost

it feels lighter now without your judging eyes on my hands when we were sitting in silence too scared to say anything we used to walk around the city watching the rain fall down and now I just walk alone remembering all those great moments we had it was something like a movie where you were the main character and I was just a small shadow of yours “you are perfect for each other” – they said

I guess they were wrong because a few months later you started to retreat slowly, but fast enough for me to see it you left a big hole inside me and didn't even bother to apologize for it even though it was growing bigger day by day we almost had something perfect something that no one besides us could understand but after all it's my fault that we fell apart imperfect perfectionist

"We"

Let's smell the flowers of life together Let's drink tea from the same cup And sip it slowly like our feelings Let's hold hands wounded by the same willow And spread the blood from our wounds on each other bodies Let's drink the nectar of our love straight from each other's lips
And let's stay in the tangle of our hearts Perhaps forever

The Lark

Oh, a fine poet of a harp!
Fly and croon my last demand take it high, above the scarp bring to people of my land.

Into the mountains, the river's course to drown the silence, to lost the feel and to the forest, and to the cause of losing faith, to lost the thrill;

Let it be shout within the skies!
Oh, little lark bring out my claim!
Let it be lost – the last goodbyes and let all know what it became

Within a scream missed in the night, in all my pitty, in all my shame I beg fire to dance bright so it could easily melt my blame.

Oh, my lark, You know the fear, you know the path of trembled heart!
Hanged in blue it looks so clear!
But luckless know it lost its path.

To call her mine, to call her not to seek Eden in the night to catch, to lost and find a thought to hold, to vanish with her sight

As she is just a little droplet of water on Bedouins mouth; perishes fear and fills the goblet with wine – the murder of our drought

As she's a lily with bitter nectars and knight in white guards her notion who picks her, fights a hellish spectres and prays for her, for saint devotion

Oh, a fine poet of a harp!
Fly and croon my saint demand pour the wine down the scarp give to people of her land.

I love when you look deep into my eyes Darling, I'm jealous of you when you are not by my side
The oftener you tell me about your love to me the I kiss you harder Your eyes are as beautiful as summer grass
You are my moon at the shines stars
My heart belongs to you I love you

"No More Shall We Part"

There is a love letter in Your purse Left closed with imprinted lips on Your name And silent words that please my bones
The things You say are the only ones I can obey

As I shake in my sleep and dream of Your cheeks
Kiss me again, rekiss me, kiss me
See how fervent is the weakness of my skin
Please me again, release me, please me

And As I sat sadly by Your side
The One that I've been waiting for We're Nobody's Babies now
All down my veins my torn heart called

No more shall We cry
And no more shall We part

As I shake in my sleep and dream of Your cheeks
Kiss me again, rekiss me, kiss me
See how fervent is the weakness of my skin
Please me again, release me, please me

I hold this letter in my hand
And no more shall We part
I press my lips against Her name Love letter, speak out She's in my mind

And no more shall We part
